Program Summary

Kentucky Campus Compact AmeriCorps members will provide college and career mentoring for students in 55 high schools and area technology centers throughout the state and for veterans in five Kentucky colleges and universities. AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 500 volunteers who will be engaged in helping high school students and veterans learn about careers, complete the paperwork for college access, and help build the college going culture in the high school and veteran communities. This program will focus on the CNCS focus areas Veterans and Military Families and Education.
